Annexure – II Best Practices

D) Promotion of research activities among faculty members.

1. Goal

*To pursue continuity and consistency of research activities among faculty.

*To help research activities to percolate to students.

2. The Context

To encourage research activities among faculty members, who have already completed M. Phil./ Ph.D.

1. The Practice:

To provide a platform i. e. Research interest for inculcating and developing research culture among faculty members and students. Recent trends in education have widened the concept of higher education to include not only study of the curriculum but also appropriate work research work by the student in the subject area.

4. Evidence of Success

a. faculty members participated in 17 international, national, state level seminars, conference and workshops.

b. 15 research papers of the faculty members were presented and published in journals.

c. Dr. Vedpathak M. R.: Published book entitled ‘Rural Local Government and Socio-economic Development’, ABS Publication, Varanasi, 2015, ISBN No. 978-93-81549-55-1.

Title of the Practice II) Felicitation of students and staff

The college organizes a felicitation programme every year for the meritorious students and members of the teaching and non teaching staff for their outstanding Academic performances and other social or cultural achievements.

2. Goal

1. To develop a human personality with describable proficiencies, attitudes, values, and qualities of self confidence and creativity.

2. To promote a sense of self respect and dignity of the students, teaching & non teaching staff.

3. The context

The felicitation programme is held every year to boost the morale of the students. The programme urges the students to participate more and more in the college activities, and also to score good marks in university exams. They get moral support from the felicitation programme. They are the part and parcel of the society and can fulfil every dream of the nation.

4) The practice

The meritorious students of the college and different department are felicitated according to their ranking. The teaching and non teaching staff members are also felicitated for their extraordinary achievements. The best students from Sports, Culture, N.S.S. DLLE and the students who participated in inter college or inter university competitions are also felicitated. Special convocation Day is organised in the College for Final Year students. The members of the teaching and non teaching staff are also felicitated for their outstanding performances in various fields like writing books, getting Research Project approved or for pursuing the Ph.D. degree and other social or cultural achievements.

5. Evidence of Success

The impact of the felicitation programme is immense. The confidence among the students and staff is worth mentioning. The felicitation of teaching and non teaching members help in creating a homely environment that also helps smooth and effective administration.

Annexure – III Feedback from Stakeholders

The college has formal and informal mechanisms to obtain feedback from alumni, Parents and students. We take feedback using following mechanism

I. Feedback through questionnaire from the Students.

It is a routine aspect of our college to assess the quality of the faculties by students who are the real stakeholder of the institution. The consolidated report feedback on teachers for the year 2015-16 is as follows.

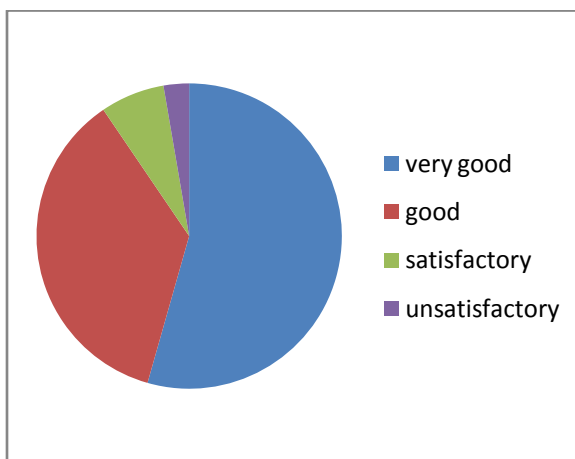

The Parameters

1. Knowledge base of the teacher (as perceived by you)
2. Communication Skills (in terms of articulation and comprehensibility)
3. Sincerity/commitment of the teacher
4. Interest generated by the teacher
5. Ability to integrate course material with environment /other issues, to provide a broader Perspective
6. Ability to integrate content with other courses
7. Accessibility of the teacher in and out of the class (includes availability of the teacher to motivate further study and discussion outside class)
8. Ability to design quizzes / test/assignments / examinations and projects to evaluate student's understanding of the course
9. Provision of sufficient time for feedback
10. Overall rating

We have prepared a feedback format in the form of questionnaire relating to curriculum. Four point scales method was applied to analysis the feedback. Feedback has been collected from the students. The questionnaire provided a grade scale A-Very Good, B- good, C- Satisfactory, D- Unsatisfactory. To make impartial treatment, the census method is used to collect the data. The simple average method is adopted to analyse each criterion and are presented in pie charts. The percentages of all parameters are consolidated to a single average percentage of all faculties of the college.

very good	54.4
good	36.1
satisfactory	6.8
unsatisfactory	2.7

It is found that the feedback given by the students about the faculty was satisfactory.

II. Feedback from the Students Parents and Alumni.

The Meeting of parents and Alumni was held on 15th Sept 2015 in College.

The meeting made following suggestion and reconditions.

- Leakages in building slab should be repaired.
- Entrance of the Boy’s toilet should be outside.

Action taken:

- The slab of the college building was repaired and the shade with measured 17000 sq. ft. area with RCC column and galvanised metal seat was constructed on the first floor.
- The direction of the Entrance door of the Boy’s toilet was changed as suggested.
